

In its landfills, Estre has systems designed to capture and burn biogas (methane or CH₄), which is 21 times ... urban and industrial residues into raw materials for the production of alternative ...

Don't forget the power in residuals

The activities undertaken are to: develop, test and evaluate the technology of biogas production from coffee waste; implement a Carbon Credit pilot project to investigate the possibilities; and, roll ...

There's more than one kind of energy in coffee

The authors propose that baroclinic vorticity generation is primarily responsible for production of rotational motion at small scale and that amalgamation is responsible for the production of ...

Vortical structures in pool fires: Observation, speculation, and simulation

The authors propose that baroclinic vorticity generation is primarily responsible for production of rotational motion at small scale and that amalgamation is responsible for the production of ...

Copyright code : f19bb32b008a8b275232002c16133f7f