"Death is the back door into the other world. It is not the door of honor and glory. Death is the torturous, round-about way of painful correction. It is the way for those who are not given a great welcome. It is the path of many delays, in which the erroneous ideas accumulated in life may be removed. It is the painful way of correcting the false beliefs and the false standards gathered along the road of life. It is the way of removing the seals that have been placed upon the mind through bigotry, evil, fleshly lusts, an inflated ego or an inferiority complex. Death is the way of nurturing immature, weak souls. It is the way of correction. There is, however, a front door which is the way of utter glory and honor. This is the door Christ came to reveal and none would believe. This door is opened to all who overcome. It is opened by the very power of their overcoming. This book is written to reveal, to those who are ready, the beauty and magnificence of that front door. It is a book written out of the fires of eternity. It is your book. It is the map to your own soul, the diagram of you, temple of God. It will reveal the secret powers that will show you how to overcome the thieves and throw out the money-changers. It is the revelation of that wonderful person you were meant to be, with all your unspeakable powers released for growth and eternal happiness and supreme honor, now—and forever more.—Annalee Skarn

Man's eternal quest for self-knowledge and self-fulfillment demands a continuing expansion of consciousness. Consciousness, the secret of life, determines man's experiences. Discovery of this secret is the primary purpose of man's presence in the world.On the mystical path, you learn that the goal in life is releasing the soul from the tomb of human existence, more especially the tomb of the human mind. If we are to experience the soul, we have to break through the limitations of the body and the mind. The reason that this realm of the soul is so little known is that God is spoken of as God without the realization that God is the soul of man. The purpose of man is to show forth the nature of God. Man originally was intended to be the instrument through which, or as which, God lives on earth. Man is the great glory of God. Man was not meant to cry, and all his tears are shed only because of a sense of limitation. Every tear you shed is proof of some form of limitation being experienced in your life. Man was not born to cry!

A daily guide to living in the presence of God. "Ultimately, we all want to be free of disease, lack and limitation, sin or sinful desires; we all want to be free of material law. The only hope we have for immortality and eternality, or even for living out a normal span in good health, is to make the transition to where we are living not by bread alone, but by every word of God that permeates our consciousness."

The selections cover a wide range of topics from the nature of God and prayer, to the meaning of the Christ, to spiritual healing and spiritual practice. Readers who are new to the Infinite Way and find spiritual resonance with these selections will enjoy going on to explore the vast treasure of Goldsmith's work that is available for deeper study.

"Contemplative meditation is the preparatory step before pure meditation without words or thoughts and its main purpose it to keep the mind stayed on God-to acknowledge Him in all our ways-so that in quietness and in confidence we may be still and know that I am God."In this invaluable message, Joel Goldsmith guides the reader through the practices of contemplative meditation. Not only does this book outline specific exercises useful for daily life, it reveals that meditation is a way of life that will bring the meditator into the ultimate experience of Oneness with his or her Source. That experience "without words or thoughts" brings peace and spiritual abundance into limitless expression. "Your having contemplated these truths is the reason there is peace in our midst. You have brought the peace of God which passeth all understanding." If there is love here with us, you have brought the love that is without limit. If there is supply you have brought God's storehouse. All that the Father has is yours, and you have brought it here."

The celebrated guide to the awareness of the divine and transcendental in our daily lives. This modern spiritual classic is one of the three books, Goldsmith felt contained the essence of all his teachings.

If you think that there is some new truth to be learned humanly, you will be disappointed because there is not a single new truth in the entire world. The truth revealed in this book is not my truth or my message, but the word of God which has been imparting itself to universal consciousness throughout all time. That word of God is already embodied in your consciousness, and this truth, which is already your consciousness, is now being unveiled to you within you. Unless God is my consciousness, there will be no truth expressing itself through, or as, me; and, moreover, unless God is your consciousness, you will not understand the truth that is being presented. But, since God is universal consciousness and since God is my consciousness, truth is expressing itself as this book.
